

Reprinted with permission from

Baltimore
MAGAZINE
AUGUST 2009 ISSUE

BEST TIES

J. S. Edwards

When did ties get a bad rap? There is nothing boring about the selection at J.S. Edwards, 1809 Reisterstown Road, 410-653-2266, which stocks a well-edited collection of handsome, stylish ties in remarkable colors, patterns, and fabrics. Robert Talbott, Tino Cosma, Etro, and Canali appeal to a classic, more refined crowd. Meanwhile, Psycho Bunny, a line that adds a little edge to all things preppy with its signature bunny and crossbones emblem, is a great twist on tradition for the younger set. It's safe to give ties as gifts again—we promise.